Entrance to Central Library

Using the Library

Information counter of Central Library

How to enter the library

- Place your student or staff identification card over the card reader of the entrance gate, to enter the library.
- If you do not have a student or staff identification card, please ask a librarian at the counter.
- If you require support when using the library, please ask a librarian at the counter.

Borrowing

- Hand over the books you want to borrow and your student or staff identification card to a librarian at the counter, to complete the procedures for borrowing.
- With your student or staff identification card, you can use an automatic lending machine.
- For the maximum number of books and period for borrowing, see the page of each library.
- You cannot borrow the books that are designated as “for reference only” in OPAC.

Return

- Return the books you borrowed to the counter.
- You can return the books you borrowed from the library of another department, too.
- If you miss a deadline for returning books, you will receive some penalty, which varies among libraries. For example, you will become unable to borrow books next time.
- If you lose or deface a book you borrowed, consult with a librarian at the counter.

Extension of a borrowing period

- Before the deadline for returning, you can extend a borrowing period only one time, if the book you borrowed is not reserved. Complete the procedures for the extension at My Library (p.10), the counter, or an automatic lending machine.
- After a deadline for returning, you cannot extend the deadline.

For visitors

- Visitors can use this library for academic research, surveys, learning, etc. If you visit this library for the first time, bring your identification card, such as your driver's license and student identification card.
- You can browse the materials in a library freely, except special collections, etc. For details, see the page of each library.
- If you want to borrow a book, apply for the issuance of a library card at the counter. Library cards can be issued for general citizens who are over 18 years old (excluding high school students). A library card can be used at all of our libraries.

Using the Library

Copying of materials in the library

● You can copy the materials inside a library only for the purpose of a survey or research once, as long as you do not violate the Copyright Act. (You are not allowed to copy your own notebook or the like.) When you copy a material, fill in “an application form for duplication” with necessary items. When you use a copying machine, please observe the following rules.

- (1) In the case of a book, you shall not copy all pages of the copyrighted work, but some of them.
- (2) In the case of a paper or article included in a periodical, you shall not copy all pages of the paper or article, but some of them. As for the periodicals published a while ago (as the following issues have been published or it has been 3 months after publication), you may copy all pages of one paper or article.
- (3) You can copy a material only one time.
- (4) The purpose of copying shall be limited to surveys and research.
- (5) You shall not recopy a material.
- (6) You shall fill in an application form for duplication with necessary items, after confirming provisions.

Article 31 of the Copyright Act Duplication in Libraries, etc.

In the following cases and as part of non-commercial undertakings at the National Diet Library or at a library or other facility specified by Cabinet Order whose purpose is to offer books, records, and other materials for the public to use (hereinafter referred to as a "library, etc." in this paragraph), it is permissible for a person to reproduce a work from a book, record, or other material of the library, etc. (hereinafter referred to in this Article as a "library material"):

- when providing a single user of the library, etc. with a single copy of a part of a work that has been made public (or the whole of a work that has been made public, if it is an individual work that has been printed in a periodical and a considerable period of time has elapsed since its publication) in response to the user's request and for the purpose of the user's research or studies

Interlibrary access

● If a library does not have a book you want, you can request the delivery of the book or its copy from a library of another department or university, National Diet Library, or the like. Please ask a librarian at the counter about how to do so, charges, etc.

Prohibited acts inside the library

No eating or drinking

No talking on a cellphone

No smoking

No leaving your belongings unattended

No speaking loudly or chatting

Regarding the cooperation with nearby public libraries

- We offer the following services in cooperation with Nagano Prefectural Library and other public libraries in Azumino City, Iiyama City, Ina City, Ohmachi City, Shiojiri City, Suzaka City, Matsumoto City, and Minamiminowa-mura, which are affiliated with our libraries.

Book search

- OPAC has the links to the book search site of each affiliated library in Nagano Prefecture.

Request for the delivery of materials

- You can request the delivery of materials stored in an affiliated library to any library of our university. Please ask a librarian at the counter.
- There is a possibility that you will not be allowed to take the delivered materials out of the library.

Returning service

- You can return books to any of affiliated libraries and our libraries.
- Libraries in Matsumoto City, Shiojiri City, Azumino City, and Ohmachi City ◀▶ Central Library
- Library in Ina City ◀▶ Agricultural Library
- Libraries in Iiyama City and Suzaka City ◀▶ Engineering Library

For details, please contact a library.

If an earthquake or fire occurs in a library, ...

Earthquake

- If you sense a tremor, stay away from bookshelves and windows!
- During an earthquake, huddle under a table to protect yourself!
- Do not get out of the building hastily!

Fire

- Notify library staff of the fire!
- Stay away from the fire!
- Place a handkerchief or towel on your mouth, and stay low!

When you evacuate, please follow instructions from library staff.

Check the evacuation routes in libraries on a daily basis.

In Shinshu University, you can obtain the latest information on disaster through the WiFi broadcasting system at the time of disaster.

For details, please search “信大キャンパス放送 (Shinshu University Campus Broadcasting).”

Search Methods for Materials

Search with OPAC

OPAC search window

Simplified search window

Input a book title, author's name, or the like in the search box, to search.

You can log in to My Library (p.10) from here.

By clicking "Advanced search," you can narrow down subjects, material types, libraries, etc.

How to search

	Input Japanese	Input English
Partial match search/forward match search	Just input a word and search. "外科 (surgery)," → 外科医 and 心臓外科 will be included in hits.	Input * (asterisk) just after a word. plastic* → plastics and plastically will be included in hits.
Phrase search	Search without inputting a space. 世界遺産	Search after adding double quotation marks. "world heritage"
Exact match search	Input words in "Full Title" in the narrowed search, and search.
AND search	Solar generation → Materials that include both "solar" and "generation" will be retrieved. *In this case, not only "solar generation," but also "solar power generation" will be included in hits.
OR search	Cancer OR tumor → Materials that include either "cancer" or "tumor" will be retrieved.
NOT search	Jomon NOT pottery → Materials that include "jomon," but not include "pottery" will be retrieved.

What is the search engine OPAC?

With OPAC, you can check the locations of books, journals, audiovisual materials, e-Books, etc. stored in the libraries of Shinshu University.

URL : <http://www-lib.shinshu-u.ac.jp/opc/>

List of search results

Window for the list of search results

You can change the order and number of displayed hits.

The screenshot shows the OPAC search results page for Shinshu University. The page title is "信州大学 附属図書館OPAC". The search results are displayed in a list format, with the first three results highlighted. The search criteria are "徳州" (Tokuzhou) and "1" page of "338" pages. The search results are sorted by "並び替え" (Sort) with "10 | 50 | 100 件 /" (10 | 50 | 100 items /).

Annotations on the screenshot include:

- A red box around the left sidebar filters (Library, Year, Format, etc.) with the text: "You can narrow down libraries, publication years, formats, etc."
- A red box around the "並び替え" (Sort) dropdown menu with the text: "This indicates the format, such as a book and a journal."
- A red box around the "1" page indicator with the text: "This indicates the current status of the material (e.g. borrowed), its location, call number, etc."

You can narrow down libraries, publication years, formats, etc.

This indicates the current status of the material (e.g. borrowed), its location, call number, etc.

How to see search results—Books

Click a book title from the list of search results, to display “the detailed info of the book.” You can check the storage state of the book by seeing the “Location” and “Call Number” in the storage state information.

Storage information

Status

The status of each material, such as “Loanable” and “Checked out,” is indicated. If you want to use a book stored in a research room, please ask a librarian at the counter.

Location

The location of each book is indicated. In this case, we have several copies of the book, and store them at different libraries, departments, and divisions.

Call Number

This number represents the theme and location of each book. Books are placed on bookshelves of libraries in the order of call numbers. The back cover of each book has a label, and so we recommend you to write down call numbers when searching bookshelves for books.

Reserve

You can reserve books that have been borrowed. You can also request the delivery of books from other libraries. Click the button for “Reserve,” and log in with the ID and password of ACSU.

How to see search results—Journals

Click a journal title from the list of search results, to display the “detailed information of the journal.” You can check the storage state of the journal by seeing the “location” and “volume/issue number and year” in the storage state information.

OPAC's window for the detailed information on journals

In the case of journals, you need to check not only whether the journal you want is stored, but also the issue you want is available.

Bibliographical information

Storage information

所蔵番号	所蔵年	所在	請求記号	OPAC注記
19-24	2013-2016	中央図書館 中央館 (北)	雑誌雑誌

15(4-12), 16(1-5, 7-12), 17-25, 27(1)+	2009-2020	文学部図書館 文学部 (雑誌)

Volume/issue number and year

Each journal is indicated with volume/issue numbers, and years.
Example: 15 (4-12), 16 (1-5, 7-12), 17-26+
... 2009-2020

The issues published between 2009 and 2020 are available.
The plus sign indicates that we still subscribe to the journal.
We do not have Issue 3, Volume 15 or Issue 6, Volume 16,
because these are missing issues.

Location

This indicates where the journal is stored. Some volumes may be stored at different locations. If you want to use a journal stored at other libraries, departments, or divisions, please ask a librarian at the counter.

The back numbers of journals are bound. We recommend you to write down journal titles and volume/issue numbers when searching bookshelves for journals you want.

If you cannot find a material you want in OPAC (search the libraries outside our university)

If a book or journal you want is not stored at our university, you can request the delivery of the book or its copy from another university or directly visit the university (p.4). In the following websites, you can search for the libraries that have a material you want.

CiNii Books

You can search college libraries around Japan.

NDL-Search

You can search books stored in National Diet Library, public libraries, etc. around Japan.

Shinshu Book Search

You can search books stored in libraries in Nagano Prefecture.

My Library

*Exclusively for those who belong to Shinshu University

How to log in

1. Click "Login" in My Library in the common menu at the right side of the website of the library of our university.
2. Input your ID and password for ACSU and click the login button.

There are two other entrances to My Library.

- After login to ACSU, click "Library Portal: My Library" in "Library" on the menu.
- Click "My Library" in the menu at the upper part of OPAC, input your ID and password for ACSU, and log in.

How to use each menu

This window displays the notifications from the library.

The diagram illustrates the layout of the My Library website on both PC and Smartphone versions. On the PC version, the navigation menu at the top right contains five items: Home (1), Search (2), My Library (3), Request (4), and My Account (5). On the Smartphone version, the main menu contains five items: Home (1), Search (2), My Library (3), Request (4), and My Account (5). Both versions display a 'WEBサービス' (Web Services) section with a 'カスタマイズ設定' (Customize Settings) link. The PC version also shows a 'お知らせ' (Notice) section and a 'あなたへお知らせ' (Notice to you) section with various service status indicators.
