website (https://www.shinshu-u.ac.jp/ad\_portal/return/index.html) (Japanese version only “入試情報ポータル”/“入学検定料返還手続き”).

- (6) Successful applicants will be withdrawn in the event that any information included in submitted documents is found to have been falsified.
- (7) If there is any change in the address, applicants must inform the Admissions Office immediately of it by e-mail. E-mail address of the Admissions Office is “s_admi@shinshu-u.ac.jp”

10. Extended Study Program

Extended Study Program is a convenient study option for working students. Well-planned long-term study can facilitate their academic works and reduce tuition fees. Applicants of this program will be reviewed by the university. If permitted, they aim to obtain a degree by completing courses within a period of up to four years.

If you wish to use this program, inquire the admission office (s-admi@shinshu-u.ac.jp).

11. Preliminary Consultation for Applicants with Disabilities

Applicants with disabilities (see table below) who will require support/special assistance when taking the examination or when pursuing their studies after admission should submit a preliminary consultation application form to reach the Admissions Office (s_admi@shinshu-u.ac.jp) by 5:00 p.m. Friday May 17, 2024.

We may also ask you to submit a document giving details of the severity of your disability (e.g. medical document (copy) or Physical Disability Certificate (copy)).

If you have a severe disability, please arrange a consultation as soon as possible. Without a preliminary consultation, we may be unable to provide the support you need right after enrollment.

* You can download the preliminary consultation application form from the website (Japanese version only “入試情報ポータル” / “障害等のある方の事前相談”).

(https://www.shinshu-u.ac.jp/ad\_portal/consultation/index.html)

* If you need to take an examination using a hearing aid, crutches, or a wheelchair, etc., special arrangements may be required in the setting up of the exam room, and we will need advance notice in order to manage these adjustments.

The purpose of the preliminary consultation is to engage in a dialogue with applicants with disabilities in order to discuss possible accessibility issues on the University’s campuses and to create a better environment in which to take entrance examinations and pursue research. Reporting a disability issues will not affect an applicant’s eligibility to take an entrance examination or limit their opportunities to study or do research once admitted.

Type of Disability	Severity of Disability
Visual Impairment	Corrected eyesight in both eyes is generally less than 20/66 (6/20), or visual impairment other than visual acuity is so severe that ordinary visual recognition of letters, figures, etc. is impossible or extremely difficult even with the use of a magnifying glass, etc.

Applicants with physical disabilities for whom basic movements in daily life, such as walking and writing, are impossible or difficult even with the use of assistive devices 2. Applicants with less severe physical disabilities but who still require medical observation and assistance with daily activities
Developmental Disorders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Autism spectrum disorders (autism, Asperger’s syndrome, pervasive developmental disorder)</li> <li>• Specific learning disorders (learning disabilities)</li> <li>• Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder</li> </ul>
Health Impairment/Condition, Including Chronic Conditions	1. Applicants with chronic respiratory, renal and neurological disorders, malignant neoplasms and other disease states that require continued medical care or assistance with daily living 2. Applicants who require constant assistance with daily life due to physical weakness
Others	Applicants who require support when taking an examination or studying for reasons other than those given above

12. Security Export Control (for International Students)

From the perspectives of exporting goods, providing technologies and people-to-people exchange, Shinshu University has established the Shinshu University Security Export Control Regulations in accordance with the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act to develop the system of export control.

International students subject to such legislation should have sufficient discussions with their academic advisor prior to applying to our university, and should note in advance that:

- If they fall under any of the regulated matters, they may not be able to receive the desired education or their research activities may be restricted after enrollment.
- If regulation is tightened due to amendment of the law, or for any other reason, the student may be unable to continue research already under way.

cf. the Shinshu University Security Export Control Regulations
